

Titel

Thema:	The Joys of storytelling with children
Veranstaltungsnummer:	2511E0601

Inhalt/Beschreibung

Beschreibung und didaktische Gestaltung:	Learning English creatively through storytelling can be a powerful, engaging and delightful experience for children and the people who work with them. Young learners grow in confidence and fluency as they listen to, respond to and create stories. In this workshop you will participate in storytelling activities, discuss multisensory features of the storytelling as well as repetition, rhythm, rhyme and actions. You will also explore the value of sharing stories from around the world to celebrate cultural diversity. Then you will have the chance to exchange a story with another participant. This workshop is suitable for teachers who are new to classroom storytelling as well as those with experience.
